

Shower wisely

Water is our most important resource. People, animals, and nature as well as healthcare, food production and industry are dependent on the availability of water. Turn off the tap water when brushing teeth and shaving, and when you lathers up in the shower.

Water is our most important resource. We are all dependent on the availability of water. Turn off the tap water when brushing teeth and shaving, and when you lathers up in the shower.

